POEM - PRAYER FOR THE WORLD

Prayer for the World

by Cortney Kenow Heerwald (insta: cortneykenowheerwald)

When I look at the world
And see such great need
I am at a loss for words
So I fall on my knees

You give me the prayers
That come from your heart
I am filled with compassion
And it is there I will start

Humbly asking your will
To be done on this earth
Your love to have victory
A new world rebirthed

There is so much here
That I don't understand
But I continue to trust
That we are all in your hands

Show me what now
Is mine here to do
Help me to love
This world as you do
